TWO VESSELS LOST.

Four Men Lose Their Lives in the North Pacific Ocean.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 24.—The steamer Centennial from Alaska reports the loss of two vessels, the schooner Courtney Ford and the ship Louis Walsh, both of San Francisco, and the death of four men. The Ford went ashore onzen Land, the evening of Sept. 7 and the Walsh was lost off the Spit near Dutch Harbor during a gale on Oct. 14. Captain M. E. Bergensen and four members of the crew of the Ford returned from the north on the Centennial. The Ford had delivered a cargo of lumber to St. Michaels and was returning when she went ashore in the fog after traveling three days by dead reckoning. The vessel lies on a sandy bottom and probably can be saved. For a week the crew of the Ford camped on shore, several trips being made through the surf in an attempt to locate the village of Norosva. In one of these trips the boat was capsized and two seamen, O. A. Olsen and Walter Watson, were drowned.

Papers from the body of one of the sailors drifted ashore near Morosva, and a white trader fitted out a schooner and rescued the captain and remainder of the crew and took them to Alaska.

No particulars as to the wreck of the Walsh were obtainable when the Centennial left.

Men Make the Laws.

"There's no law against a person making a fool of himself," growled old man Rohrer.

"The men make all of the laws, do they not?" mildly asked Mrs. Rohrer.

"Of course."

"I see," she mused. "Men never like to hamper themselves."—Indianapolis News.

DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.

Well Attended Religious Convention Closes at Omaha.

Omaha, Oct. 24.—With the evening's session of the convention of the Disciples of Christ ended one of the most generally attended religious conventions ever held. Over 7,000 delegates were present and it is estimated probably 7,000 other strangers came to the city. Probably no session was attended by less than 2,000, and several attendances ran from 10,000 to 12,000 persons gathered at the Coliseum. In his address during the day George F. Hall said it was the largest convention in the history of the denomination. At no time has the enthusiasm waned and the climax in eloquence of oratory and buoyancy was reached in the afternoon with the meeting of the evangelists.

Lovely Woman.
Miss Hoamley—I don't know whether or not to wear a veil with this hat. Do you think it would improve it?

Miss Speitz—That depends, dear. Do you mean to wear the veil over your face or up on your hat?—Philadelphia Press.

Still Worse.

Ethel—What is more aggravating than a man who tells you of his love and never mentions matrimony?

Edith—Oh, a man who tells you of his money and never mentions matrimony.—Judge.

In the Studio.

Baker's Wife—I should like to have my little boy put into the picture too.

Artist—Then it will cost $20 more.

Baker's Wife—But I'll take him in my lap.—Lippincott's.

CREATES A SENSATION

MAYOR JOHNSON OF CLEVELAND MAKES AN ATTACK ON JOHN R. MCLEAN.

SCORES SENATOR HANNA

Speaking in His Large Campaign Tent at Cincinnati, Mr. Johnson Devotes Most of His Time to a Bitter Denunciation of Mr. McLean and the Enquirer and Other Elements in the Democratic Party.

Cincinnati, Oct. 24.—Mayor Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland, who is recognized as the Democratic leader in Ohio this year and as the probable opponent of Senator Hanna next year and a candidate for the presidency in 1904, created quite a sensation here during the evening by attacking certain elements in his own party, especially John R. McLean, individually and as the proprietor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, and Lewis G. Barnard, as chairman of the Democratic committee of Hamilton county.

Mayor Johnson's large campaign tent, which has a seating capacity of 2,000, had all standing room taken and many were unable to gain admittance. It was generally expected that Mayor Johnson would devote his time mostly to replying to the address of Senator Hanna here the previous night. While Mayor Johnson referred to Senator Hanna's speech in most caustic terms, he directed his address principally to what he terms the "local traitors in the Democratic party," and his references to Mr. McLean and Chairman Barnard were as bitter as his fluent language could make them.

Mayor Johnson reviewed the speech of Senator Hanna and charged him with forcing the curative act for railways through the legislature.

Takes a Shot at Hanna.

Some one asked him if he wanted Hanna to come into his tent. Johnson replied that he had frequently invited Hanna to join the debate in his tent, but that he could not be pulled in with a four-inch rope.

Another voice was heard to ask if Hanna did not want to be president. Johnson replied:

"Yes, most anybody would like to have that job."

In reply to further inquiries, Johnson said:

"Hanna is a close neighbor and a good citizen, but we never could agree on anything. He says I am traveling around in a circus tent showing a preacher, that I am a hypocrite and a demagogue, but that is no answer to the candid questions we have put to him and are putting to the people. Hanna is a candid man and does not try to reply to our charges about his curative street railway act because he knows he cannot answer them."

Mayor Johnson discussed taxation and other questions, but would revert back at different times to the Enquirer and Mr. McLean. He charged the Enquirer with publishing that he came to Cincinnati as a disbursing agent. He said he pitched his tent to preach the gospel of reform and cast out the money changers. He had not boddle for anybody.

He said he had reserved this speech to make at Mr. McLean's home, and not at a distance from his paper and neighbors, and after repeating over and over his charges, he said:

"I not only challenge, but I defy Mr. McLean and his paper."

FINAL SESSIONS HELD.

Missionary Council of the Episcopal Church Adjourns.

Philadelphia, Oct. 24.—The final sessions of the conference of the missionary council of the Protestant Episcopal church were held during the day. Important questions were discussed, and the impression prevailed among the delegates that much has been accomplished toward the improvement of the missionary branch of the church. The bishops, who have taken an active interest in the proceedings, were absent from the afternoon session owing to a meeting of the house of bishops, called to elect a bishop for the diocese of Salina, Kan. At the morning business session Bishop Brewer offered a resolution suggesting to the board of managers that the missionary apportionment be increased to $1,000,000 annually, and recommending certain methods for meeting the apportionment. The council, at the afternoon session, adopted the paragraph fixing the sum to be raised, but tabled the remainder of the resolution.

Live Stock Show Well Attended.

Kansas City, Oct. 24.—Another of 25,000 to 30,000 people attended the American Live Stock show at the stock yards during the day. The sale of Galloways began. Twenty-eight bulls sold for $3,450, and nineteen cows for $3,979, a general average of $154.

St. Paul, Oct. 24.—The St. Paul hearing in the suit of the government against the Northern Securities company and others was concluded during the day at the federal building.

The session lasted all day, and the witnesses examined were Colonel W. P. Clough, fourth vice president and general counsel of the Northern Securities company, and Charles S. Mellen, president of the Northern Pacific Railway company, both of whom were called on behalf of the defendant company. At the conclusion of the day's testimony, Special Examiner Ingersoll announced that the next hearing in the case would take place at New York on Monday, Nov. 10, when further evidence for the defense will be taken.

FIRE ON THE OREGON.

Coal Bunkers of the Battleship Said to Be Burning.

San Francisco, Oct. 24.—The Bulletin says that a fire has been burning in the coal bunkers of the battleship Oregon for three days and that the officers of the vessel would not say that the fire had been extinguished. A board of survey has been summoned to examine the vessel and it will be some time before she will be able to depart for Manila.

Repairs will have to be made and a new supply of coal put on board before the battleship can sail.

Mr. Stuntz was the oldest resident of Duluth.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

For Governor—SAMUEL R. VAN SANT

For Lieutenant-Governor—RAY W. JONES

For Secretary of State—PETER E. HANSON

For Auditor—SAMUEL G. IVERSON

For Attorney-General—WALLACE B. DOUGLAS

For Treasurer—JULIUS BLOCK

For Clerk of the Supreme Court—C. A. PIDGEON

For Railroad and Warehouse Com'r—CHARLES F. STAPLES

For Member of Congress, 6th Dist.—C. B. BUCKMAN.

For Senator, 48th District—A. F. FERRIS.

For Representatives, 48th District—H. A. RIDER.

I. W. BOUCK.

THE republican legislative ticket this year is made up of unusually strong and capable men and should receive unanimous republican support.

VOTE for Hon. C. B. Buckman for congress, and you vote for the best interests of this community, as well as voting for republican principles and policies.

HON. C. B. BUCKMAN, the republican candidate for congress, is a hustler. He has a faculty of always getting what he goes after, which will be a great benefit to this district when he is in congress. The needs of the district will not be overlooked.

No republican who has the success of republican principles at heart can cast his vote for DuBois, the democratic candidate for congress, for he is an avowed exponent of the ruinous principles of free trade, free silver, and free soup houses that always follow.

THE violent opposition of the St. Paul Globe (Jim Hill's personal organ) to Gov. Van Sant, is alone sufficient reason why every opponent of trusts and illegal combinations should vote for him. He incurred Mr. Hill's enmity by bringing suit to compel him to obey the law as any poor man is required to do, and thus incurred the opposition of the railroad magnate.

His Unlucky Choice.

"Well, I like Ginx," he whispered.

And then he realized as she turned her phiz from him that he had blundered.—Chicago Tribune.

SHOULD BURN SLASHINGS.

Gen. Andrews, Chief Fire Warden for the State, Passes Through the City Today.

This noon General Andrews, chief fire warden of the state, passed through the city en route to St. Paul from Mispah, up north on the M. & I. He states that he has been up there looking over the forests and reports a very interesting trip.

The general had something to say regarding fires which cause a large amount of damage in this part of the state in the fall of the year. He said: "If the lumbermen could be made to burn the slashings after them there would be less trouble from forest fires. But it would take a force of men to compel them to do this. Another thing that would help out a good deal would be to compel the railroad companies to comply more strictly to the letter of the law. They are compelled under the law to keep their right of ways clear, but they do not obey the mandates of the law in this city."

EDITOR DAILY DISPATCH:

DEAR SIR:

The entertainment presented by the White Mahatma at the opera house last night, was without doubt, the greatest farce ever perpetrated upon the citizens of Brainerd. It is to be regretted, that the opera company will allow such imposters to gain admission into their house, and thus extract money from our citizens under the disguise of spirit manifestation or phenomena, which will, if conducted in a sacred manner, disclose or prove the immortality of the soul, and a life beyond the grave. Such a sacred subject should not be made the scape-goat of such a demagogue, as the White Mahatma. He is, what is termed a mind reader or a sensitive, capable of receiving the impressions or thought vibrations from those he may come in contact with, but beyond that he is a fraud and an imposter, as compared with his circulars and the performance presented at the opera house last night.

Yours Respectfully,
A. AUDSAHL.

HOW ACCIDENT OCCURRED.

As Mike Sassgen Thought, His Brother was Blasting Rock When He was Blown to Pieces.

The following is the account taken from the Journal-Press regarding the accidental death of George, a brother of Mike Sassgen of this city near Cold Springs:

"George, the twenty-one-year-old son of Thomas Sassgen, a farmer living in Rockville town, some three or four miles from Cold Springs, met a horrible death yesterday afternoon while blasting rock in a field. He had returned only a few days ago from Little Falls and was engaged with a party of men at blasting with dynamite cartridges. Particulars are meager, but it appears that Sassgen put down a cartridge and when it failed to go off drilled down upon it from above. No one was close by when the explosion occurred but his companions found him dead immediately after hearing the concussion. He still had his pipe between his teeth, but was terribly mangled. No inquest was held as the facts were patent to all. The accident was the sole topic of conversation at Cold Springs last night. Besides his mother and father, he leaves two brothers and two sisters. Michael Sassgen and wife of Brainerd arrived in the city this afternoon to go to the funeral. The sisters are married, one living at Pearl Lake and the other at Beaver Dam, Wis."

DOMESTIC TROUBLE OF THE MCEWENS

Professor While Filling an Engagement at Brainerd Gets a Divorce

AND BOTH GET MARRIED AGAIN.
McEwens Had a Beautiful Home at Detroit City and Are well Known in State.

The domestic infidelity of Prof. P. H. W. McEwen and his wife Jessie McEwen has run its course, the last scene of the romantic experiences of the twain having been enacted about a week ago at Spokane, Wash., when the professor was married to Miss Ethel Kneeland, of Ymir, B. C.

Prof. and Mrs. McEwen made their home at Detroit City this state for years, where they had erected a beautiful residence, one of the finest in the northern part of the state. They lived happily for years until about a year ago when Mrs. McEwen became infatuated with E. N. Smith, who was traveling with Mr. McEwen on his trips through the country, and who will be remembered as the cornetist with the professor here. Suit was brought for a divorce by Jessie McEwen against her husband and the case was tried last May, while McEwen was in this city filling an engagement at the Brainerd opera house, Judge Blewitt appearing as attorney for the plaintiff. The decree was granted on the ground of desertion. Not long after that the former Mrs. McEwen was married to E. N. Smith and they now live at Detroit City.

The following from the Spokane, Wash., Spokesman-Review tells of the marriage of the professor to his second wife:

"P. H. W. McEwen, the hypnotist, was married last evening to Miss Ethel Kneeland, of Ymir, B. C. The ceremony took place in the parlors of the Ridpath hotel at 8 o'clock and was witnessed by the bride's parents and a number of invited guests. The officiating minister was Dr. H. D. Kimball of the Vincent church. Mr. and Mrs. McEwen expect to make their home in Spokane, but Mrs. McEwen will travel with her husband while the latter is touring the country for the purpose of giving exhibitions in hypnotism, in which occult science he is regarded as a master."

MORE OF THE FORGED CHECKS.

J. F. Murphy & Co., and A. E. Moberg Each Cashed one for Young Menze.

Two more of the forged Monarch Elevator Co. checks have come to light and the prison walls seem now almost a reality to young Gunther Menze, who was arrested some ten days or two weeks ago charged with forgery, at the instance of J. C. Hessel for whom the young man was employed. It was thought after the check was found at L. J. Cale's that that was all the bogus paper that the lad caused to be floated about in this city, but this does not seem to be the case. Two more checks have shown up, one at J. F. Murphy & Co's and another at A. E. Moberg's. Both these checks were for the same amount, $29.50.

The young man has been held to the grand jury and the indications are that he will surely be convicted unless he confesses before that time, which he has virtually done to his father. He tells his father that he has been a victim of the gambling habit and that some of the sharks in the city have been the cause of his downfall. The father, who is a respectable farmer in the Daggett brook country, is almost heartbroken over the affair.

His Life In Peril

"I just seemed to have gone all to pieces," writes Alfred Bee, of Welfare, Texas, "bilioousness and a lame back had made life a burden. I couldn't eat or sleep and felt almost too worn out to work when I began to use Electric Bitters, but they worked wonders. Now I sleep like a top, can eat anything, have gained in strength and enjoy hard work." They give vigorous health and new life to weak, sickly, run-down people. Try them. Only 50 cents at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s and at McFadden Drug Co.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"THE COUNTY FAIR" COMING.

"The County Fair," which, with Neil Burgess himself in his famous character of Abigail Prue, is announced for early presentation in this city, has a novelty in realism as a climax to its third act. The trained horse "Cold Molasses" not only kisses but also caresses its mistress, Abigail Prue, in such a way as to draw unstinted applause from the audience. "The County Fair" is one of those New England farm life pictures, which not only afford wholesome amusement but also present realistic illustrations. There is an exciting horse race, so cleverly done that mechanism is forgotten and as the horses are running across the stage they seem to be running hundreds of yards neck and neck. Then there is the barn picture with its corn husking and frolic, singing and dancing, its bundles of straw and beautiful Alderney cow, complacently chewing her cud, a beautiful picture from start to finish.

THE "BLACK" MAHATMA

Last night the "White Mahatma" was advertised to appear at the Brainerd opera house and it would have been better if the lights had not come on as was anticipated in the first part of the evening that they would not. Prof. Brown was the individual who did the stunt in supposed occult spiritualistic and physic demonstrations. He managed to get a good committee on the stage in the persons of A. L. Hoffman, A. E. Moberg, J. J. Howe, F. G. Hall, W. S. Cox and H. D. Treglawney. He went through different demonstrations which were pleasing to the audience but his work was very crude and there was one spiritualistic demonstration which if given out would be the best bit of reading Brainerd people have seen for some time.

MINES AGAIN RUNNING

RESUMPTION IS NOT SO GENERAL
THOUGH AS HAD BEEN EXPECTED.

ARE TAKING NO CHANCES

Many Unlooked for Difficulties Arise
in the Form of Water, Accumulated
Gas and Dangerous Roofs—Number of Workings Need a Great Deal of Repairing Before They Will Be in Serviceable Condition.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 24.—The resumption of mining throughout the anthracite region was not as general during the day as was expected. Unlooked for difficulties were encountered in the shape of water and accumulated gas, and dangerous roofs, which threatened to fall and entomb the workers, were also discovered in many of the collieries. The mine superintendents would take no chances and the mining of coal was put off until all parts of the underground workings can be made safe. This will take a few days yet and in some cases it will take weeks before some of the mines can be put in full operation. Although work was carried on in some mines that are not considered in the best of condition no accidents were reported for the day. In quite a few of the collieries the machinery and everything else connected with the hoisting of coal acted badly and it was found necessary to close down after steam had been raised and the miners were ready to go to work. From reports received from the entire anthracite region, the number of mines in operation is given as a little less than two-thirds of the total number, but the output of coal was less than half the normal.

The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company took the lead in the production. Their collieries are in better shape than the mines operated by the other large companies. An increase of at least 20 per cent in the output may be looked for at once. About one-half of the mines of the Delaware and Hudson company were working and the output of those in operation was light. The mines of the Susquehanna Coal company at Nanticoke were in operation, but only the upper levels could be worked, as the lower levels contained considerable water. In three days, however, it is expected that the output of coal

Will Reach the Full Quota.

The Lehigh Valley Coal company operated about one-half of its mines with a full force of men. The Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal company mined coal in several of its big mines, but all of its collieries will not be in condition to resume before Monday. The Kingston Coal company started up two of its collieries. The other two will start on Monday. The Parrish company will not resume until Monday.

It looks as though the union engineers were going to have some difficulty getting back their old places. At nearly every mine where the striking engineers made application for work during the day they were told that there was no vacancy. A large number of carpenters are also out in the cold. A delegation of carpenters waited on President Mitchell during the day and told him of their grievances. The chief of the miners' union advised his callers to wait a few days and see if employment would not be offered them. The only friction reported between union and nonunion men was at several collieries in the Wyoming region where the miners objected to be lowered into the mines by nonunion engineers.

President Mitchell was busy at headquarters all day getting the miners' side of the case in shape for presentation to the arbitration board. Great preparations are now under way for the celebration of Mitchell day in this city on Oct. 29. National Board Member John Fallon has charge of all the arrangements. He will be chief marshal of the parade, which promises to be the largest demonstration of miners ever held in the coal region.

NONUNION MEN SCARCE.

With Stockade Living Quarters Gone
They Are Forced to Quit.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 24.—Nonunion men were scarce around the collieries during the morning. True to their declarations, the companies did not dismiss them, but with the stockade living quarters gone and the almost impossible task of securing boarding houses confronting them, the imported nonunionists packed up and left for other localities. Thirty-five nonunion men left the Raymond washery in a body because of the closing up of the stockade living quarters.

At about half the collieries a practically full force of men was put to work. At all, except a few, a portion of the men were sent in. Falls of roof, which blocked roadways, were responsible in most cases for only a part of the force being re-employed.

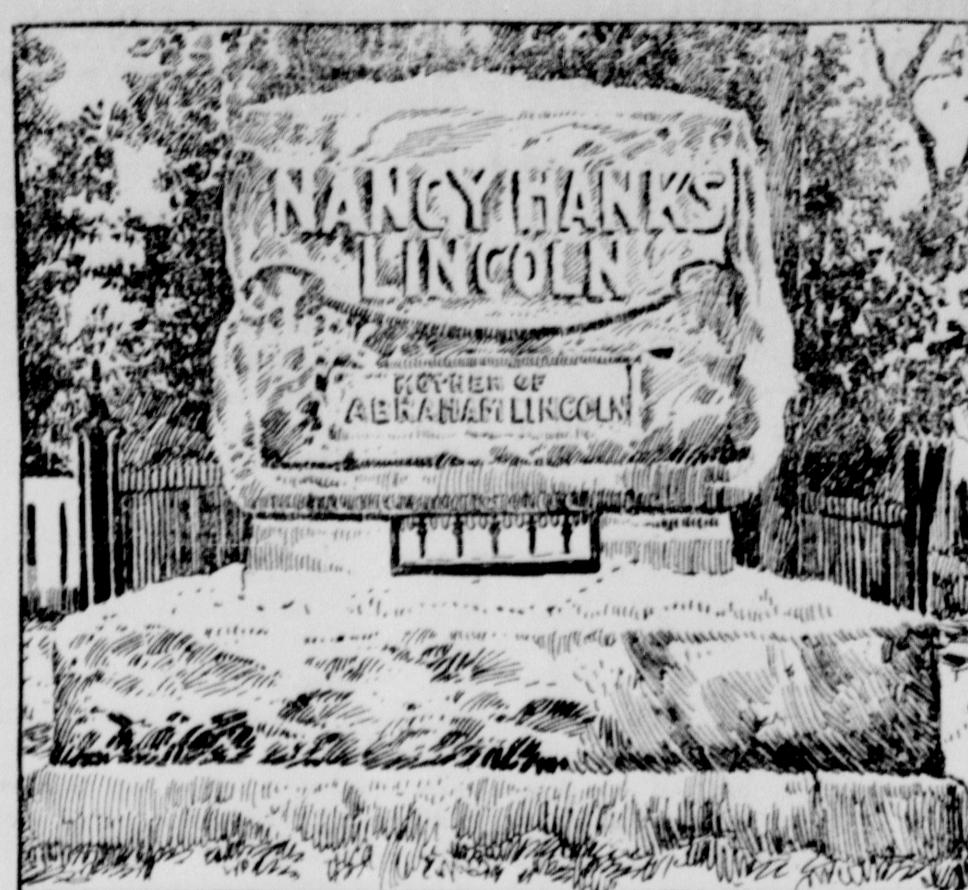

ONE ACCIDENT ALREADY.

Two Miners Buried Beneath a Falling
Colliery Roof.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 24.—Thomas Doran, aged thirty, and Henry Rupp, aged twenty-three, two returned strikers, who were working with a gang of rock men on the night shift at the William A. colliery in Lackawanna, were buried beneath a fall of roof and badly crushed. Doran died from his injuries and Rupp is in a critical condition.

Wright to Be a Member.

Washington, Oct. 24.—Carroll D. Wright is to be commissioned as seventh member of the strike arbitration commission. The miners and operators have consented.

THE MONUMENT TO LINCOLN'S MOTHER.

JUSTICE HARLAN A SCRAPPER.

Stops a Fight Between Freshmen and Sophomores.

Washington, Oct. 24.—Justice Harlan of the United States supreme court, who is a member of the faculty of the Columbian university law school in this city, during the day interfered and prevented a class fight between the freshmen and sophomores. Justice Harlan is a giant in stature, and, although sixty-nine years of age, he is still vigorous and active, golf being one of his daily exercises. The youngsters were no match for him when he entered the arena.

The anticipated contest was the result of the announcement of the freshmen class that it would hold its first meeting in Jurisprudence hall. This announcement acted as a suggestive challenge to the sophomores to break up the meeting if possible. After the regular lecture of the evening, the first year men undertook to open their meeting, when the sophomores made a charge against the door of the hall. At this point Justice Harlan appeared and in a commanding voice ordered the combat to cease. The sophomores paused for a moment, but were evidently not disposed to obey the order, for they began a second assault.

It was then that the eminent jurist took a personal hand in the fray. He reached over the heads of the assaulting party, and, seizing the leader of the forces by the collar, dragged him from the pile. The jurist then directed the second year men to disperse, with the desired effect.

BODY RIDDLED WITH BULLETS.

Mob Hangs and Shoots a Negro at Tallapoosa, Ga.

Tallapoosa, Ga., Oct. 24.—Ben Brown, a negro, charged with having attempted to criminally assault Mrs. Henry Dees, a white woman, at her home during the day, was taken from the county jail at night by a mob of 300 men and lynched. Troops were hurried from Atlanta, but did not arrive until an hour and a half after the negro had been hanged.

It was then that the eminent jurist took a personal hand in the fray. He reached over the heads of the assaulting party, and, seizing the leader of the forces by the collar, dragged him from the pile. The jurist then directed the second year men to disperse, with the desired effect.

ESCAPES FROM THE MULLAH.

Difficult Position.

London, Oct. 24.—A message received at the foreign office here during the day from General Manning, dated Berbera, capital of Somaliland, announces that the force commanded by Colonel Swayne, which was threatened with destruction by the army commanded by the Mad Mullah, has reached Bohotle in safety.

CASTRO AGAIN ATTACKS REBELS.

La Victoria, Venezuela, Oct. 24.—

Forces under President Castro attacked the revolutionists during the day in the positions they occupied near San Mateo. President Castro hopes to surround the rebels.

PRESIDENT WILL ADDRESS MERCHANTS.

Washington, Oct. 24.—President Roosevelt has accepted an invitation to be present at the annual banquet of the chamber of commerce of New York Dec. 11. He will make an address.
